no coconut palms the last tree was destroyed by an overindulgence in sadomasochism rats too, and paper mulberry made ropes to tie up sweet potatoes, and bananas

they grew everything but pigs rattus exulans! the grand blue shark kingdom of ekuamaha, rat queen of jubaea, chilean wine palm (every once in a while a stupid vancouverite tries to plant one of these - then they die in the winter) the polymasyndeta used the tree leaves to transport their tv's rolling heads rattus, deforestrated then the sex got too much and they destroyed each other by it sex controls all resources and is an impossible ideal sex = starvation, ecocide and cannibalism zeusiana for the exulantia why didn't they do something to save their ecosystem?

one of the things that may have destroyed their palms were the rats that had chewed open the palms and burned the trees down then poi planting and taro and all the pig sex the evidence reveals that the polymacians (kuahiri ma tiki; klenari mek fuleni) destroyed the island then the european boat came and raided all the rats and took away the spaniards

other jesuit priests using smallpox aphrodisiacs one source shipped off the sweet potato fields to chile the introduction of the sheep ranch this is a horrible example of ecocide

it really isn't ecocide there's all this literature about it being ecocide but really the spaniards got shipped off so there's nothing saying it was
